

As we all come to grips with the situation and adjust to these new circumstances, here are answer some questions you might have toward your AAS courses this Spring 2020 Semester and progress toward your degree.

Will AAS courses taken C/NC this semester count towards the major?

- Yes, AAS courses taken C/NC will still count towards the major.

What about AAS 1020? Can it be taken C/NC?

- Yes, AAS 1020 can be taken C/NC this semester will still count toward the major.

Can I still receive a letter grade for an AAS course?

- Yes, you can still opt to receive a letter grade for any of your classes in SIS before April 28. You will receive instructions from the registrar in the next week or two telling you how to do this.

Will my transcripts show that this was the COVID19 semester?

- Yes, your transcripts will document the special circumstances of this semester.

Who should I contact if I have an issue about my grades in AAS?

- If you experience issues with your grades in AAS, you should contact Andrew Kahrl
- If you have questions or concerns about anything else, I am also available to chat by phone or over zoom at a time that's most convenient for you. Simply send me an email.

Questions about UVA's COVID preparedness?

- The University's website for the latest on how the institution is managing operations impacted by the coronavirus.
- The A&S COVID-19 page.

For UVA resources to assist students:

- A&S student resource page